

English for Personal Information

Your First Day on Campus

Miss. Tanaporn Lawilad
At Khemarat Technical College

Making Connections

Welcome to your first day! To make friends and build your network, you need to share your Personal Information. Let's learn the vocabulary and tools to introduce yourself to the world.

Building Your Student Profile

First name /
Last name

Nickname

Date of Birth
(e.g., 19 June 2010)

Identification Card no.

Nationality

Describing Who You Are

Height: 180 centimeters
Weight: 50 kilograms
Age: 19 years old
Gender: Male / Female

Single

Married

Divorced / Separated

Your Life Outside the Classroom

Address:
74 Suwinthawong Road,
Bangkok

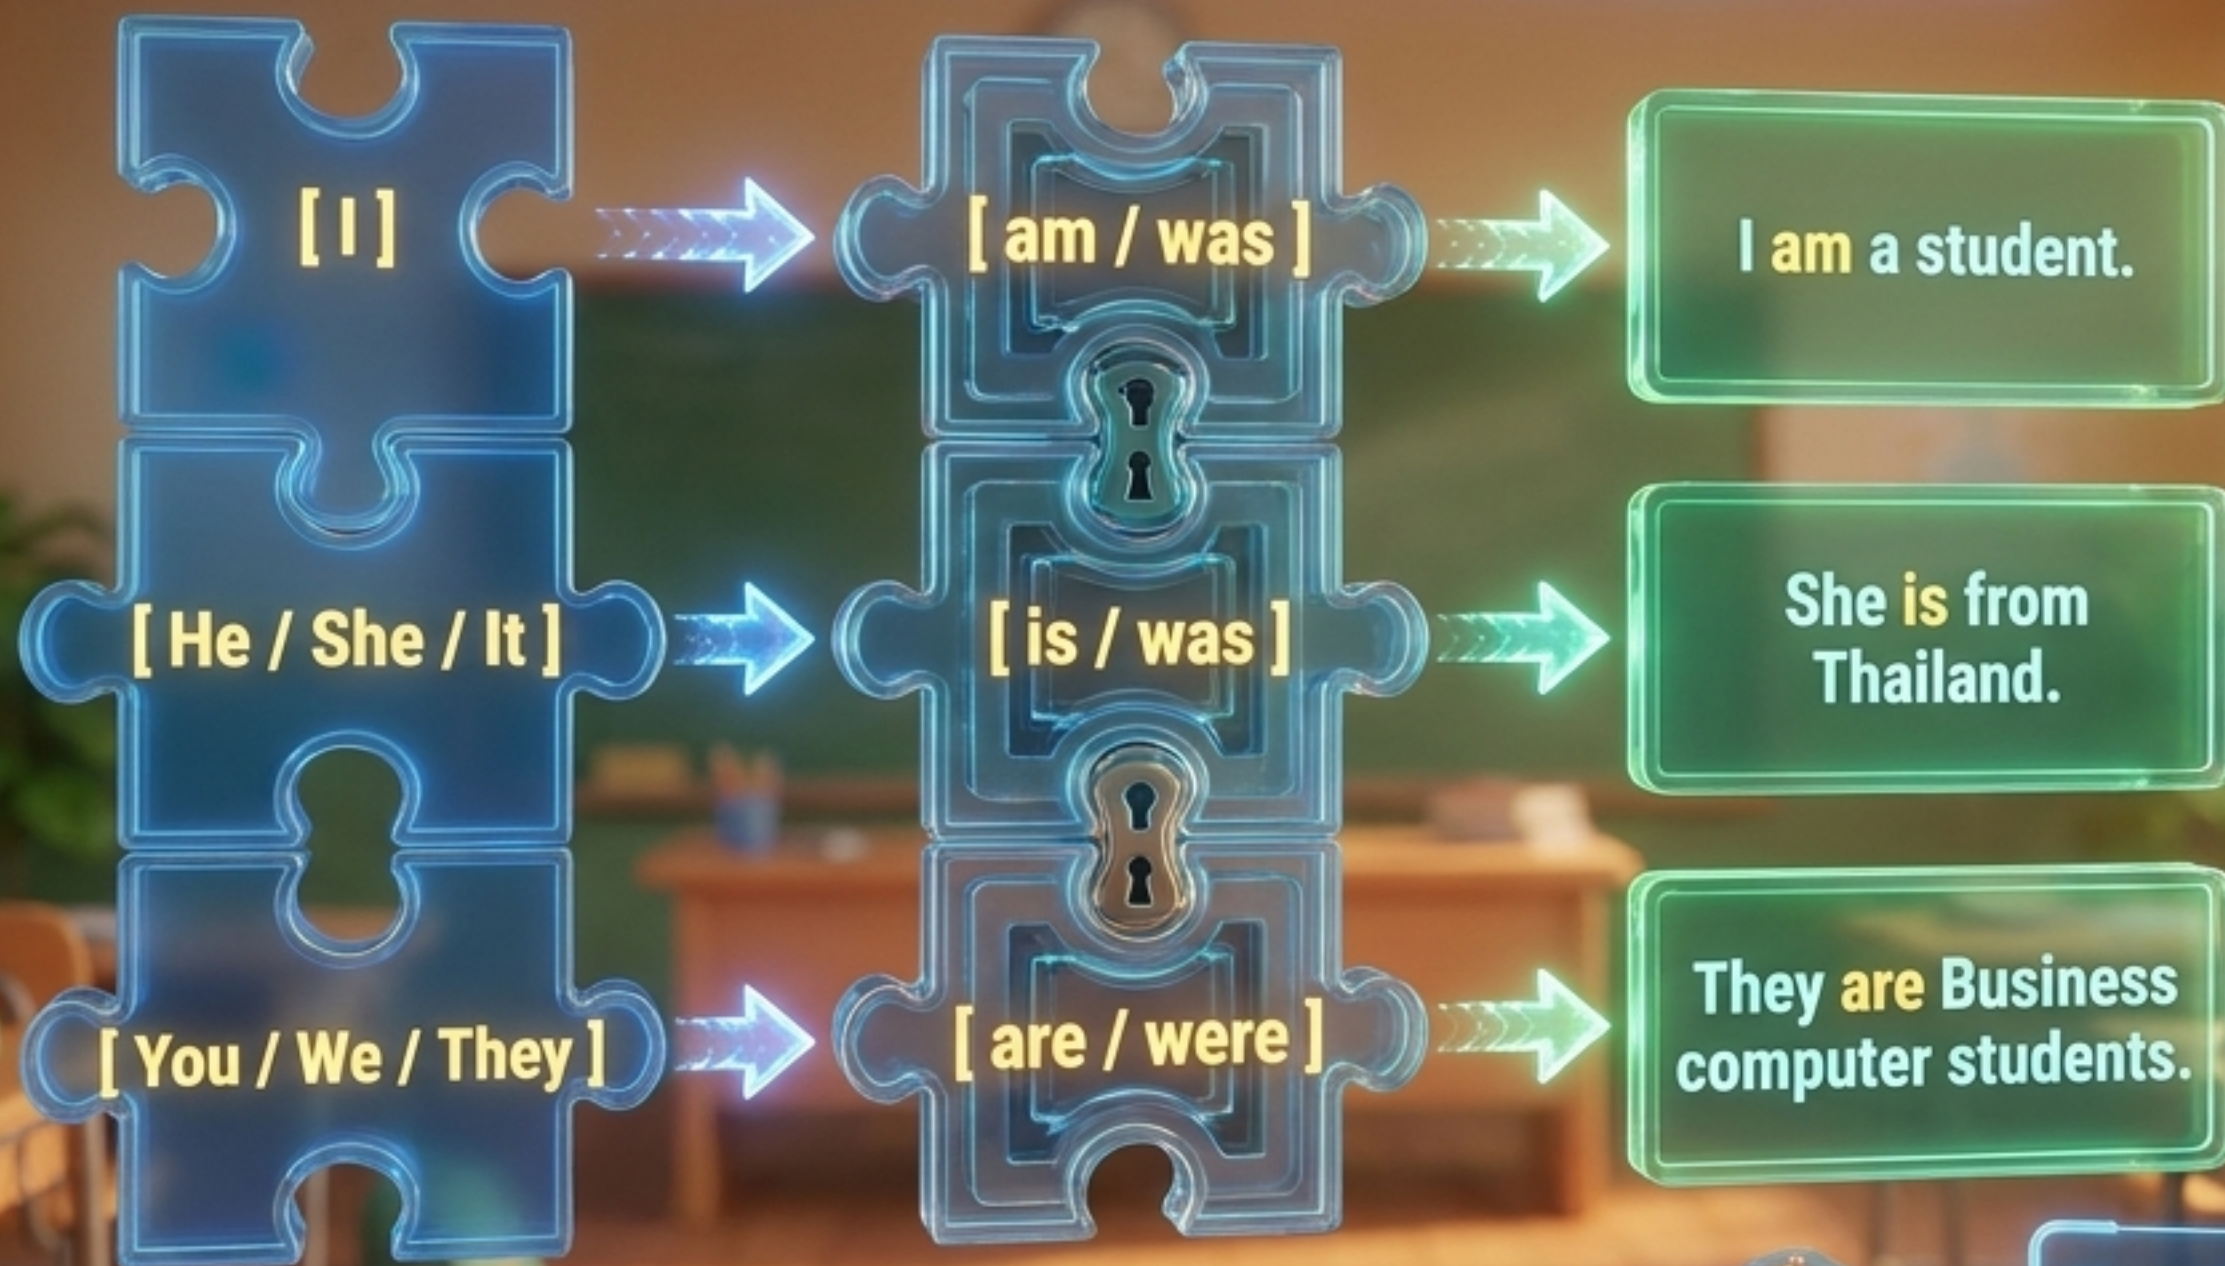

Religion:
Buddhism, Islam,
Christian

Contact:
Telephone /
Email address

Educational Background:
Vocational Certificate

Hobbies:
Surf the internet,
Cycling, Music

The Verb to Be Engine

Negative Toggle:
Add not after the verb
(e.g., He is not single.)

The Crossroads of Conversation

Choose the Right Question

_____ do you live?
(Where / What / How)

_____ is your birthday?
(Why / When / Where)

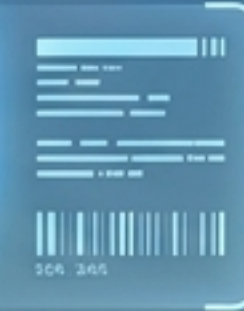

_____ old are you?
(How / What / When)

Asking About College & Career

_____ is your college?
(Who / What / Where)

_____ do you go to school?
(When / Where / How)

_____ are you responsible for in the company?
(Who / What / Where)

Completing a Digital Profile

Breaking the Ice

My name is Douglas.
What's your name?

I'm from Paris.
Are you American?

My name is Jessica.
Nice to meet you.

Where are you from?

Yes, my parents were American, so I'm American, too.

Notice how they use the
Verb to Be and Wh-
Questions naturally!

Your Turn: Introduce Yourself!

Hello, everyone! My name is [Your Name], and I am currently a [Your Year] student at [Your College].

I have a passion for [Your Hobbies], and I am excited to be a part of this class.

Nice to meet all of you!

Let's practice with your new friends!